

Special Sections to Consider for 2014/2015

The Journal is excited to present these special advertising opportunities. Special sections and supplements are known to be keepsake items that end up in reader's scrapbooks and memoirs. We welcome all businesses, organizations, schools, parents and the greater communities to participate. Be sure to reserve your spot!

January/February – Chamber Awards - These sections will recognize all those who receive community awards at the Big Sandy and Hawkins Annual Chamber Banquets.

February – Salute to Working Women

March - March Madness is our new section this year where we will be featuring retail businesses, and gathering coupons and specials for any company that wants to participate.

April – Spring Preview & Easter Holiday – Easter & Springtime celebrations in our communities

May/June - Graduation for Hawkins, Big Sandy, Harmony and Winona.

July- Celebrating the 4th of July

August- The Fall Sports Preview

September- Salute to Working Men (Labor Day) & Honor our Everyday Heroes – Police, Fire-fighters and Emergency responders (week after September 11).

October- Red Ribbon Coloring Book – A supplement send to every k-3 student at Big Sandy, Hawkins, Harmony and Winona schools. Students take these home and many pages end up on display at homes across our readership area & Fall Harvest / Oil Festival Specials

November- A Salute to our Veterans, & Thanksgiving Signature Page

December- Shop Local, Christmas & Happy New Year Signature Pages

All sections are subject to change based on breaking news, or more improved ideas.
